

Visit: Waste Serv Malta

As part of the Eko Skola project we decided to target the community with regard to waste management. In April we organised an outing to the Sant' Antnin Waste Treatment Plant that included both parents and children. During the visit children were read a story whilst the parents went round the plant. Both parents and children were informed about the importance of separating waste and they were also shown what happens to waste once it is separated.

