

Hello children. How are you?

As you may have noticed from our school website this week is Book Week. During Book Week we celebrate the importance of reading through books.

So for this week apart from having the usual tasks to do, together with some links, you will also find a page dedicated to Book Week. In this page you are going to find some activities which you may do. You will be asked to choose books which you like. These activities will help you to celebrate Book Week.

Have fun and try to be creative as much as possible!

We love you and 'Happy Book Week!' ❤️
